B.E.A.R.S., Inc.

(Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service)

Thanks to all the people for being so co-operative in the starting of the B.E.A.R.S. survey, which will be continued in the near future. Most of the streets in Bethel were completed.

The New England boiled supper was delicious and enjoyed by all. Many thanks to the cooks.

Just a small reminder: Folks please be patient while waiting for the ambulance to come after you have called. Ambulance personnel are all volunteers and have to come from work or home to the Fire Station to reach the ambulance before they can respond to the call.

Karen Brown met with the B.E.A.R.S. on Monday, Oct. 22, to outline the direction the State E.M.S. system is taking.

On Nov. 4 the first B.E.A.R.S. and First Aid Squad Refresher Training will start—write this on your calendar. B.E.A.R.S. so not to forget.

Safety Tip of the Week — All those Halloweeners carrying pumpkins with candles be extra careful—make this a Safe Halloween.

Special Voting Nov. 6 — Disapproval of Liquor License Recommended

There will be a Special Election on Tuesday, Nov. 6, from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. with polling taking place at the Bethel Fire Station. Issues to be voted on include the returnable container question, three referendum questions, and a proposed constitutional amendment. If you plan on being out of town on Election Day, please contact Town Clerk, Merion Brown for an absentee ballot. Should you have any questions concerning the election, please contact the Town Office. Townspeople may register to vote at the polls on Nov. 6.

Hunting season is due to open for Maine residents on Saturday, Nov. 5. Residents of the town can purchase their resident hunting licenses at the Bethel Town Office ONLY. The fee is $7.50.

The Board of Selectmen met Monday evening, Oct. 29, and acted on a variety of items. The Selectmen reviewed the liquor license application of Douglas Scott d/b/a the Sudbury Inn. Mr. Scott spoke in behalf of his application and several residents of the area around the Sudbury voiced complaints about the Inn's operation and the parking and noise problems that occur. After a lengthy discussion a motion was made and passed 3 to 1 that due to the fact that there has been a violation of the State Liquor Laws, a violation of the State Eating and Lodging Rules, a court case pending in a related area, and an apparent violation of the Town's Special Amusement Permit Rules and Regulations as adopted Sept. 11, 1978, that the Board of Selectmen recommend disapproval of the renewal of the liquor license and that a transcript of the review be forwarded to the licensing division of the Bureau of Alcoholic Beverages.

In other action the Board approved Merion Brown's appointment as Warden for the Nov. 6 Special Election, approved the Ballot Clerk schedule for the election continued on Page Four

Village Retail Merchants Committee To Be Considered by Local Chamber

The Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce will hold a business meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the Bethel Savings Bank starting at 4:30 minutes after 12 noon. The main topic on the agenda will be in response to various comments made by local merchants and innkeepers about the need to better promote local merchandising as well as organize more public events related to the center of the village. The members will be asked whether or not they want to form a committee of this type, select a chairman and to start work on a calendar of events with first priority given to the coming Christmas season.

On a broader note, the Bethel Chamber has also invited the Deputy Director of the Maine State Development Office to meet with the chamber at a dinner meeting on Nov. 16 so that interested members and the public can learn of Maine's goals in the areas of industrial, tourist and foreign market development. At that meeting, results of the previous Wednesday's meeting can be reported and a general plan of action for the coming year discussed.

In the last two years, the local chamber has acted principally in the area of recreation and tourism publishing five different brochures about vacationing in this area. Its efforts have been directed mostly at the Maine and Boston areas. With the formation of a new committee, if accepted by the members, the chamber will be able to approach its goal of stimulating local business activity in a more comprehensive manner—something which is seen by the president as essential as travel costs continue to increase.

was spotted by a Civil Air Patrol plane on Saturday.

Reportedly Gagne was thrown clear of the plane and died instantly of multiple internal injuries.

Forming Telstar Alumni Assoc.

On Wednesday, Oct. 24, four Telstar alumni met with Telstar Principal, Dr. Wayne P. Gersen, to discuss the formation of the Telstar Alumni Association. After reading of a Homecoming Alumni Breakfast, sponsored by the Telstar Student Council, Mrs. Linda Gilbert Blake, Telstar '71, and several friends discussed the idea of an Alumni Association. Consequently, Mrs. Blake and three other alumnae—Mrs. Jody Packard Keniston '71, Mrs. Nancy Bailey Young '72, and Mrs. Danna Brown Nickerson '70—arranged last Wednesday's meeting at Telstar.

At the meeting, the alumnae received class lists from each graduating class at Telstar, discussed an alumni newsletter, and discussed planning reunions to coincide with Homecoming.

Before sending out the first Alumni Newsletter, the Alumni Association would like to hear from as many Telstar graduates as possible. Anyone wishing to be included on the Alumni Association mailing list should call or write to Linda Gilbert Blake, Box 543, Bethel, Maine 04217, telephone 824-2016.

COLLEGE EXPLORATIONS CLASS HOLDS FINAL SESSION

The College Explorations Class which has been offered at Telstar by the University of Maine at Farmington held its final meeting on Monday, Oct. 29. The eight week course which meets on Mondays and Wednesdays, was initiated by the Bethel Area Education and Work Council and the University, and has involved a core group of five adult students from the S. A. D. #44 area, Musa Brown, Ann Roy, Jana Abner, Kathie Parker, and Margaret Ring. Faculty members from the University presented college level lectures and programs from a variety of disciplines, and students received individualized testing, counseling and work on study skills, such as organizing, research and note-taking. Reaction to the class from those taking it has been favorable, and class members are now in the process of planning their continuing education with increased confidence and knowledge of available programs.

Dr. Stinchcomb of UMF, coordinator of the project, has indicated that the course will be offered again in Bethel this spring if interest warrants. Anyone interested may contact Adult & Community Education Director Cathy Newell for information, or any of the above-mentioned students.

The course would be beneficial to adults planning to go to college or vocational school, both those who have had some previous college experience and those who have never taken college level work. In addition the students who have completed this fall's session, have found the experience worthwhile as personal enrichment, and recommend the class to anyone interested — even if they are not planning immediate further study.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

This began as a gray day, a dash of rain making soft contrast with the succession of lovely warm days we enjoyed at the beginning of the week. There was fog, pearly opaque gray and once in a while a lighter patch drifted by. It gives one a hemmed-in feeling. But over the pond and near this shore I saw two ducks, necks outstretched, flying straight into the south. Only an instant and they were gone.

Autumn advances like a rising tide. It has its warm days and its chilly days. It may move forward then retreat, but all the while its progress is set in one direction.

Ruth and I chose a warm day to follow a winding road and sometimes a winding stream that had a special appeal to us. We usually find something interesting that is around every bend. That afternoon our main desire was to find a log cabin which was built many years ago. We took many by-roads but time ran out and we did not find the cabin. However everywhere it was restful and still touched with autumn beauty. Here and there were birches and maples in gold or yellow dress.

I remember a giant rock, mottled with brilliant splashes of yellow where the currents of the river had plastered birch leaves all over the upstream surface.

On one road the fallen leaves lay deep and we scuffed along with a rattling sound.

Looking off to the far horizon, we could see within eye-reach stretches of forest and mountains, all brilliant in sunshine and dappled shadows. All around us we saw autumn standing, listening for some secret of a noiseless wood.

We came across a chipmunk beneath a bush arched over a stump. It was probably its porch or look out post. It surveyed and ran around its surroundings for a minute or more, stopped suddenly, scratched its right ear, and then scampered away.

There were milkweeds dressed in silk. Autumn to us is a time of harvesting. But autumn to nature is a time of sewing and scattering seeds. They ride long distances on water or muddy feet of birds and adhere to man's clothing or to the fur of animals.

We followed one road to the river's edge where a bridge once stood. The ripples glistened in the sun, among the rocky shallows and Andrews Nursing home, took some photos and fruit tray for his 64th birthday Friday. He is better and looks better. Eunice Sprague, an old friend came in and visited with us. We haven't see her for many years. As we came out we had to wait for the Vikings home coming parade to go by and we had a ring side seat.

Who wants to buy a good clock? Oct. 28, I took a week on Standard time for 12 hours to be ticked off.

Next week our little hamlet will be a busy place with lots of hunters and maybe less on deer. The apple orchards are good calling cards. May we all eat deer mince meat. We live in apple country and pay fifteen cents for an apple. Must be inflation.

Greenwood has started a Historical Society. A meeting will be held at the Locke Mills Town Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p. m. Everyone interested in preserving the history of the town of Greenwood is invited to attend this meeting. It is hoped that we will have representatives from all sections of our town.

We went with Ernest and Ina Mundt to Gorham on Monday to visit Sylvia Luxton and returned on Tuesday.

On Wednesday I visited Laurene French in South Paris. She broke her arm recently, but is doing well.

Frank and Dorothy Curtis and Mildred Bowman called on us on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Leeper were again at their cottage for a few days from Kingston, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt and Danny, Winsor, and Ann Holt, Bethel, were at their parents here on Sunday.

At the Hayes Homestead it was a busy week end. There were various jobs taken care of: plumbing, shingling, and sewing. "Buster" and Lenora Waterhouse, Gorham; Verna Libby, Falmouth; Glenn and Kevin Hayes, Gray; Duane and Avis Hayes, West Paris; Del and Betty Hayes, Auburn; were there to lend a helping hand.

George Turner, town, was a caller.

Rolly and Doris Hayes were in Falmouth the first part of the week to attend the memorial service for Hazen Libby, their brother-in-law.

quiet pools. Rocks were edged with golden fringes where drifting leaves were stranded.

After exploring at least three roads we took the main road toward home.

Here among the mountains with cool beauty, an echo runs along the far-off heights like crystal striking crystal. The aspen quakes, the pines climb skyward and the spruces lift against the mountain cliffs. Always deep in these dark trees birds write poems without pen or words.

So we stood for a time on this October day and fastened our gaze to the mountain sides so many miles away. All too soon it was over. The four and one half miles were at an end.

"I followed October's trail today. It led through the woods and far away. To the purple hills where a vapor rose Which only a day in October knows. The stately maples with leaves now thin All testified where October had been. And the crisp crunch as I walked along Was the thrilling theme of October's song."

Snow again Sunday. This is just about all gone; but have seen snow about this time of year that stayed. Hunting has begun up country and Frank, Frankie and my brother-in-law, Don Holden from Norway, left in the spitting snow. Don't imagine that they'll get anything, but it gets them away to relax. I usually take this time to do jobs that are messy and time consuming.

Wednesday Wilfred and I left to go to Norway and picked up Mama. Mrs. George Allen. We then proceeded to Portland Jetport as Wilfred was flying into Savannah, Ga. He has to go into Georgia and then back to Beaufort, S. C. for the nearest plane accommodations.

On the way down, around Shaker Village, it was so foggy about all we could see was the white line.

Saturday Frank and Ira went to the football game in Readfield. I stayed with my sister, Marion Tucker and her husband, Ben Tucker Jr. went to the game with Frank. Had a nice visit.

Alberta Angvine and Betty Blake were in Lewiston Thursday.

TELSTAR GRIDDERS EDGE MARANACOOK, 12-6

Telstar scored twice in the first half and hung on to beat host Maranacook, 12-6, Saturday, handing the Black Bears their 33rd straight loss.

The game was between two Class D teams but as it was their second meeting of the season, it did not count in the standings.

Telstar scored the second time it had the ball as Rusty Van Deuren capped a nine-play drive with his 10-yard run.

A second-quarter pass from Doug Webster to Tim Hakala for 30 yards set up the second score. Van Deuren tallied from six yards out.

Following a scoreless third quarter, Maranacook got its offense going early in the fourth period. A roughing-the-kicker penalty against Telstar kept the drive going, which featured runs of seven, 15 and five yards by Dale Perkins. But the Black Bears came up short on a fourth-and-one deep in Rebel territory and turned the ball over to Telstar.

Following a Maranacook blitz by linebackers Rick Shaw and Bill Harrison, Telstar fumbled and the Bears recovered at the four. Perkins scored from there.

STATE OF MAINE
SPECIMEN BALLOT

Special Election November 6, 1979

A person, candidate or political committee who prepares or circulates a paper in the form of a ballot or a part thereof on which is imprinted the words SPECIMEN BALLOT or the instructions for voting on a ballot, shall have committed a Class E crime.

The issuing of bonds by the State of Maine is the way in which the State borrows money for purposes designated in the legislation authorizing the issue. The following is a summary of the bonded indebtedness of the State of Maine as of June 30, 1979:

Total Bonds Outstanding and Unpaid:	$262,050,000.00
Year in Which Existing Bonds Will be Paid in Full:	2006
Total Interest to be Paid on Existing Bonds:	$ 80,309,325.30
Bonds Authorized by Voters But Unissued:	$38,206,000.00
Limit of Contingent Bond Liability Authorized by Constitution and Laws But Unissued:	$64,282,355.00
Total Bonds Authorized But Unissued:	$152,488,355.00
Total Additional Bonds Contemplated To be Issued if Issues Submitted to Voters Be Ratified:	$ 30,810,000.00

When money is borrowed by issuing bonds, the State must repay not only the principal amount of the bonds but interest on that amount as well. The amount of interest to be paid will vary depending upon the rate of interest to be applied at the time of issuance; an estimate of the total interest that may reasonably be expected to be paid on the issues submitted herewith for ratification is $17,675,790. The total principal and interest to be repaid over the life of the bonds on the issues submitted herewith if ratified is thus estimated to be $48,485,790.

T.R.H.S. STUDENT HAS CHANCE FOR CENTURY III STATE, AND NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Anthony Butters has won the Century III Leaders Scholarship competition at Telstar Regional High School, according to Dr. Wayne Gessen, principal.

The 17-year-old senior is now eligible to compete with other high school seniors throughout Maine for two $1,500 scholarships, two $500 scholarships, and also for a $10,000 national scholarship that will be awarded in a conference of state winners in historic Colonial Williamsburg, Va.

Tony triumphed in the local phase of the Century Leaders Program, a scholarship competition which emphasizes the future concerns of America. Students were judged on the basis of their leadership abilities, community involvement and score on a current events examination. To compete at the state level, he must now write a brief projection outlining what he thinks is one of America's future challenges and how it should be met.

Runners-up in the competition at Telstar were Claude Taylor, 17, and David Holden, 17.

Tony, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Butters, now competes with other high school winners from around the state for four scholarships and an opportunity for the $10,000 top national scholarship.

The two Maine winners will receive an all-expense-paid trip to the fourth annual Century III National Leadership Seminar in Williamsburg, March 7-10, 1980, to participate in seminars on current issues. In previous years, speakers at these seminars were such notable as news commentator Howard K. Smith, architect/futurist Buckminster Fuller, and anthropologist Rene Dubos.

The program is administered by the National Association of Secondary Principals and funded by Shell Oil Company.

Tony enjoys stamp and coin collecting and has lettered in football, basketball, and track. He plans to major in business management at Orono.

Letters to the Editor

R. F. D. 1, Box 204
Bethel, Maine 04217

To the Readers of The Citizen:

By the time you read this letter you will be subjected to a blitz advertising campaign against the returnable container law. To a great extent the effort to repeal this law, which has proven itself effective, is financed by large contributions from outside of Maine. These people are trying to change the momentum that working returnable container laws have going for them for their own gains and benefit. They are not interested in the people and beauty of the State of Maine. They are unhappy that citizens in other states are following those states that have returnable laws.

Fellow citizens let us take the time to go to the polls and vote NO against the repeal of the returnable container law. It benefits all of us in not having our roadsides covered with bottles and cans as they were before this law. It is of particular benefit to farmers not to have bottles and cans thrown away in their fields. These containers in farmers' fields can lead to flat tires, sick animals, and other undesirable happenings. Please everyone go vote NO against repeal. Let us show the out-of-state interests they cannot brainwash us into removing a workable law. A law that as it spreads to other states will become even more beneficial to everyone.

Sincerely yours,
Timothy A. Carter
President, Oxford County Farm Bureau

PUBLIC HEARINGS ON BASIC SKILLS CONCLUDED

The last of the public hearings on Basic Skills in M. S. A. D. #44 was held at the Newry Grange Hall on Monday, October 29. This hearing concluded a series of five hearings held in each town of M. S. A. D. #44. The testimony collected at these hearings, combined with data gathered from the Basic Skills Assessment will be used to prepare a report for the Superintendent.

These questionnaires are available in area supermarkets and schools, and will be distributed at the Open House at the Middle School on Nov. 8, and at the High School on Nov. 15, and at the parent conferences at each elementary school on Nov. 14. The deadline for completed questionnaires is Friday, Nov. 16. The Basic Skills Committee hopes the parents and community members of S. A. D. #44 will help provide the information needed to develop an effective long range plan for the district.

and set the polling hours as 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. Deadline for department budgets and warrant articles for the annual town meeting was set for Dec. 14, 1979 and the deadline for town report narratives was set for Jan. 11, 1980.

On the request of the Bethel Aviators Group, the Selectmen directed the Manager to draw up a renewal lease for space the group uses at the airport.

Dick Raso, owner of the Bethel Inn, was present to review with the Selectmen the progress the Inn has made since the purchase of the property in May and his future plans for the facility. He told the Selectmen that percentage wise, business was better this year than last year, but that profits were adversely affected by the decline in lodging revenues caused by the energy crisis and the inability to make room reservations until opening in May.

At 9:15 the Board went into executive session to discuss a bid price for a used street sweeper owned by a town in eastern Maine.

The next Selectmen's meeting will be Monday evening, Nov. 5, at the Town Office. Other upcoming meetings include the Planning Board Nov. 7 and the Facilities Committee, Nov. 13.

The Maine Coalition for Property Tax Relief is presently gathering signatures to support an Initiative Bill to provide Maine communities with a 90% reimbursement for property taxes lost because of the Tree Growth Tax Law and a 50% reimbursement for property taxes lost due to tax exempt properties. Should this proposed action become law it would mean that the Town of Bethel would receive approximately $50,000 per year from the State to offset property tax exemptions.

COUNTY LEGISLATORS OPPOSE BOTTLE LAW REPEAL

Both Democrat and Republican representatives in Oxford County oppose the repeal of the Bottle Law.

House Representatives Jacob Immonen (Rep.), Kenneth Brown (Dem.) and Albert Theriault (Dem.) support the Bottle Law. Jacob Immonen of West Paris noted that, "The roadsides are much cleaner. As a farmer I've noticed that I don't get as many flat tires when I drive my tractor along the side of the road."

Kenneth Brown of Mexico says that, "The Bottle Law is fine just the way it is. The roads are nice and clean now." Albert Theriault of Rumford said, "I'm for keeping it the way it is."

State Senator Roland Sutton states, "The Bottle Bill is doing what it was designed to do. Therefore I oppose the repeal of it. I also feel that people shouldn't be complacent, and assume that the repeal will be vetoed. People need to get out and vote on Nov. 6."

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST Rich man, poor man, beggarman, thief—Doctor, lawyer, Indian Chief and which of these shall I marry? The little tots play, little knowing that one day they themselves will make the choice.

All through life its choices we make, moment by moment, while shopping, at work or the words we speak — it's our choice. It's by choice we reject or accept Christ as Lord of our lives.

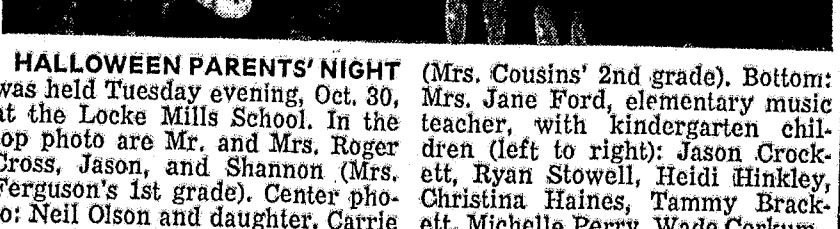

The Bible makes no distinction between the social status of man—whether rich or poor—thief or Indian chief—the Gospel of Luke chapter 16, verses 19 through 31, clearly states that without Christ there is no hope.

Today as the Gospel is spread on the printed page, heard on radio—seen and heard on television and even with certain aspects of nature and activity there is ample proof of a living God—Romans 1:20-23—where people "professing themselves to be wise, become fools."

The opposite to a wise man is a fool as told in Matthew 7 of the two builders and two foundations where-in Jesus said—"And everyone that heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand."

A person may be the worst of sinners, completely lost — his life may be ebbing away—he may feel rotten all the way through and his house may have fallen—yet while there's life, there is hope—for a loving God desires that all should come to Him—that He might make known to His beloved the riches of His glory.

MIDDLE INTERVALE
MEETING HOUSE SOCIETY

The October meeting of the Middle Intervale Meeting House Society was held on Oct. 11 at the Moses Mason House.

Committee reports were heard and a discussion of restoration progress led by Pres. Stanley R. Howe. The cupola has been repaired and shingled, and the four pinnacles replaced on the four corners. While evidence has been found that a spire once graced the center of the cupola, no plan has been made to replace that.

The building including the roof has been painted. Some masonry work does remain to be done, as reported by the building committee members Ernest Holt and Randall Stevens.

FILMS ON POLICE WORK NOW AVAILABLE THROUGH UMO

Two films on police work in Maine sponsored by the law enforcement program at the University of Maine at Orono's Bangor Community College are now available for showing without costs to groups requesting them. The films have been prepared as part of a three-year Police and Public Project and supported by a $32,682 grant from the Maine Council for the artist Elizabeth Woronoff remain on view at Moses Mason House, to be sold for benefit of Society (since the meeting of the smallest of these paintings has been sold).

Two former residents of Bethel with Middle Intervale ties, have made generous contributions, and a New York City lady, a member of the National Kimball Family Association, read about this project in their Newsletter, of which Elizabeth Carter, is Editor, and sent a contribution, expressing her interest, as a member of National Trust for Preservation, as well as in Kimball heritage (many being former attendants of this meeting house). A substantial contribution has been made by a Bethel resident, too.

These monies as well as that received from membership have helped greatly in the Society achieving as much of restoration as they have this year.

Elizabeth Carter, in absence of Chairman of Fund Raising Steve Wright, made that committee's report. Many plans are under consideration for carrying out in 1980, in the hope that enough money can be found to complete interior work by 1981. The various projects remaining to be done, mostly within, excepting landscaping, fencing and masonry repair,

Recommended method for disposing of Pills and Medications.

Your medicine cabinet is probably filled with old pills and medications that could result in illness or death if misused or overused.

Because of their danger, special precautions should be taken in disposing of drugs.

The recommended method is to empty them into the toilet bowl and immediately flush the toilet.

The person concerned with his health avoids the use of pills wherever possible. And if used for special conditions, he makes certain to dispose of them according to methods recommended for safety.

Don't save old pills—an inventory of old medications is a potential danger source.

Don't leave them in the reach of children—thousands of children are poisoned each year by drugs mistaken for candy.

Don't throw them into the garbage can—they can be removed.

Don't try to burn them—most medications don't burn. They merely fall to the bottom of the incinerator. Some are explosive.

Don't give them to other people—a medication prescribed for one person may be fatal for another.

An estimated 1 million patients are admitted to U. S. hospitals each year because of drug induced illnesses.

90% of drugs are used unnecessarily. Many drugs have not

SIDNEY W. DAVIDSON

Sidney Wetmore Davidson, of Brooklyn Heights, N. Y., a distinguished lawyer and former Trustee of Gould Academy, died Saturday, Oct. 27, 1979, in Brooklyn.

Although he practiced law in New York City, Mr. Davidson had many close ties with New England, including the honorary chairmanship of the Board of the New England Medical Center. For his work with the Medical Center, he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Tufts University in 1952. At the time it was pointed out that he had been an active worker and close associate of William Bingham 2nd in the development of all aspects of the Center. In addition to the honorary degree from Tufts University, he held an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Bates College awarded in 1960.

Mr. Davidson played a leading role in the modern development of Gould Academy. He was elected to the Academy's Board of Trustees in 1935 and was President of the Board 1947-1969. Under his leadership as President of the Trustees, an infirmary and auditorium were built, and the gymnasium and library facilities were reconstructed. Under his direction the Academy improved its reputation as an outstanding college preparatory school. His vision for the school was that it strive for excellence in all areas, and he saw to it that Gould received the financial support necessary to meet these goals. In 1971, a new dormitory was named in Mr. Davidson's honor and stands as a memorial to his interest in and dedication to the school.

During his years as a Trustee, Mr. Davidson developed a deep and lasting affection for Bethel and the people who live here. In order to strengthen Bethel's ties with the past and preserve its unique heritage, he was instrumental in the renovation of the Moses Mason House as a center for the Bethel Historical Society.

Once described by a colleague as a man "who had given unstintingly of himself in business, medicine and education," he had served as a Trustee of the Brooklyn Savings Bank, Pratt Institute, the Lawrenceville School, the Bingham Associates Fund for the Advancement of Medicine, the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, and Packer Collegiate Institute.

Tall and vigorous, well into his advanced years, Mr. Davidson was born Dec. 30, 1894, in Augusta, Ga., the son of William Treat Davidson and Carolyn A. (Wetmore) Davidson. He was educated at the Lawrence School in New Jersey, Yale Class of 1916, and Yale Law School Class of 1918.

Mr. Davidson became a member of the New York Bar in 1920 and for the next 24 years was a partner in the Manhattan firm of Carter, Ledgarden and Wilburn. From 1945 to 1949 he was a partner in the firm of Gasser, Hayes and Davidson. Then he became senior partner in the firm of Davidson, Dawson & Clark. As an attorney he specialized in trusts and estates.

He leaves his wife, the former Mary Alice Hooker; two sons, Sidney W., Jr., of Bedford, N. Y., and Robert T. H. Davidson of Belmont, N. Y.; four daughters, Jean H. (Mrs. Horace A. Fox) of Hudson; Katherine D. (Mrs. John Walker) of Bethesda, Md.; Alice H. (Mrs. John O. Outwater, Jr.) of Burlington, Vt.; and Louise T. (Mrs. Donald Hegneman) of San Francisco; 19 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

A memorial service was conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Brooklyn Unitarian Church on Monroe Place in Brooklyn Heights.

PLANS UNDERWAY FOR
SECOND TERM OF S. A. D. #44
ADULT EDUCATION

Planning is underway for the second term of Adult and Community Education classes in S. A. D. #44. Anyone with suggestions for classes to be taught, or who would be interested in teaching in the Adult Education program, should contact the Adult and Community Education office at Telstar, 824-2136.

There will be an informational meeting for anyone interested in a course in Navigation on Tuesday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p. m. at Hanscom Hall, Gould Academy. Dr. Harry Dresser, who will teach the class, will be holding the meeting to get an indication of the level of interest in the topic and the previous experience, if any, of prospective students. Topics to be covered include the dead reckoning process, taking of bearings, establishing and running fixes, and current sailing. The use of electronic navigational devices will be discussed, and if time and student background permit, celestial navigation will be introduced. The course should be of interest to sailors of all types of vessels, and those interested in flying. The class will be offered through S. A. D. #44's Adult and Community Education program during the Spring semester.

The first meeting of the class, Natural History of Western Maine, will take place Thursday, Nov. 1 (tonight), at 6:30 in the Science Lab. on the second floor of Hanscom Hall at Gould. Registration may take place at the first class. The course on Astronomy, taught by Tim Kersey, will begin on Dec. 13 at Telstar, continuing for five weeks into January. Plans for the class include a trip to the Planetarium at USM. Pre-registration may be made by calling the Adult Education office at Telstar.

The second section of the Christmas Crafts class will begin on Nov. 7. The class is fully enrolled, and those who are registered should receive materials for the first class in the mail. This class will be held at the Methodist Church in Bethel on Wednesday mornings from 9 to 11.

One of the more popular classes of the Fall term of the Adult and Community Education program is the Thursday afternoon Literature class, held in the upstairs room at the Bethel Library. Suzanne Taylor of the Telstar faculty is the instructor for the class. Thus far content for the class has been various aspects of mythology, poems and a novel. Class members are enthusiastic about their work, feeling that their discussions improve with each succeeding class.

On Oct. 16, Clayton Blood of the Division of Adult and Community Education in Augusta and Don Martin of USM presented a workshop for the teachers of high school diploma classes from the S. A. D. #44 and Mexico Adult Education programs. The supper meeting provided excellent opportunity for interchange between teachers in the two programs, as well as an update on current regulations by the guests from Augusta and USM.

WOMEN OF AMERICA"

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Women of America Awards Program has announced that Miss Karen Lee Brown of Bethel has been selected for inclusion in the 1979 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America".

The Outstanding Young Women of America Program is designed to honor and encourage exceptional young women between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, their professions and their communities. Accomplishments such as these are the result of dedication, service and leadership — qualities which deserve to be recognized and remembered.

Miss Brown, along with approximately 15,000 fellow Outstanding Young Women of America from across the United States, will be presented in the prestigious annual volume. In addition, they are now being considered for one of the 51 state awards to be presented to those women who have made the most noteworthy contributions in their individual states. From these 51 state winners, the Ten Outstanding Young Women of America will be chosen. The 10 national winners will then be honored at the annual awards luncheon to be held this fall in Washington, D. C.

"Carbon monoxide is a colorless, odorless poison that is capable of causing numbness, unconsciousness and death, when present in the air in even low concentration," said Col. Allan H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

To avoid a sudden and undetectable weakening, disabling of the body by carbon monoxide poisoning that could quickly result in death, the state police advise motorists to always observe these precautions:

—When starting a car or truck in a garage, be sure the garage door is open before the engine is started.

—If the vehicle is suspected to have a leaky manifold, exhaust pipe or muffler, have it checked. Replace it, if necessary, to prevent a tragedy.

—Always have a window in the car or truck partially opened while driving.

—If you, as a motorist or a passenger, start to feel drowsy or sleepy while traveling, stop before it is too late.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MARKS
LIBRARY CENTENNIAL

The centennial of the Bethel Library Association was commemorated last Thursday evening at the monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society. Society Trustee Chairman, Margaret Joy Tibbets, who also serves as Secretary of the Bethel Library Association, made a presentation highlighting the history of the Association.

The library association began in 1879 through the raising of funds by lectures and by subscriptions. It retained its fees for book borrowing until 1922 when it received an additional appropriation from the town. In the early years of the association, there was a continuing problem of housing the collection until Mrs. William O. Straw offered the former law office of Enoch Foster on Broad Street in 1899 as its headquarters. Mrs. Straw, upon her death in 1923, left the building, land and $10,000 for an endowment. In 1937 the building was enlarged through plans submitted by the famed Maine architect, John Calvin Stevens of Portland, to its present form. The library has had many dedicated workers who have given of themselves selflessly through the years and Miss Tibbets paid tribute to these people who have been so essential in keeping a vital historic and cultural resource alive.

During the business portion of the meeting, Vice President Donald Bennett, who presided in the absence of President Catherine Newell, called members' attention to the gift of the month, portraits of J. G. Rich and his wife, Mary, donated by their granddaughter, Gertrude Bartlett, and presented to the Society on her behalf by her son, Lawrence. Joshua G. Rich built Angler's Retreat at Middle Dam.
